Administration Requests Tax Cut For Corporations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Declaring that the nation's industry has grown rusty and needs help, the Ford administration asked Congress today to cut taxes for corporations and stockholders by nearly $14 billion over a six-year period.

"This is not a program for big business. It is a program to benefit all savers," Treasury Secretary William E. Simon said in presenting the tax plan to the House Ways and Means Committee.

Simon also urged the Congress to help develop a program to encourage new savings by all Americans by offering special tax incentives, and he urged that the 1974 Individual Retirement Accounts legislation be broadened.

The major part of the program outlined by Simon was a reduction in corporate and stockholder taxes, by a phased out elimination of what is regarded as a double tax on dividends.

At present, corporations pay taxes on their profits before any dividends are paid to stockholders, and then stockholders face additional tax liability on the dividends they receive.

Prior to making the proposals to Congress, Simon had sketched the outlines to newsmen.

Simon proposed that the double taxation be eliminated by two actions — first, giving corporations a tax deduction equal to about 50 per cent of the dividends they pay, and secondly, through a tax credit to stockholders.

Stockholders would be able to claim a tax credit equal to about one-half of the dividends they receive. The total savings to stockholders, based on current levels of tax payments, would be about $6.3 billion a year.

The direct savings to corporations from the dividends deduction would be about $7.5 billion, Simon said.

He proposed phasing in the stockholder credit over a five-year period from 1978 to 1982 at a rate of about $1.25 billion in savings for stockholders each year. The stockholder credit, however, would not apply to tax-exempt or foreign stockholders under the administration proposal.

The dividend deduction for corporations would be phased in over a six-year period, beginning in 1977 with a net reduction in corporate taxes of about $2.5 billion the first year, increasing at a rate of about $1 billion a year.

Simon said the double taxation of dividends "is inherently inequitable" since other kinds of income are taxed only once. He said most of the nation's major trading partners already have acted to eliminate or reduce the double tax.

Simon acknowledged to newsmen that because of political considerations, a tax cut for business might have to be coupled with tax reductions for individuals, possibly by extending the $12 billion in personal income taxes for 1975 into next year.

He also said Wednesday that extension of the 1975 individual tax cut would be considered by the administration as one option to offset increases in energy prices next year.

Simon and key members of the Ford administration, along with Chairman Arthur F. Burns of the Federal Reserve Board, have been laying the ground work for a business tax plan for business for months. They have argued that corporate profits in recent years have been insufficient to justify new job-creating investments.

Simon has described the situation as a "profits depression."

William Mason Memorial Hospital nurses, staff, and friends will begin arriving at Kenlake State Park hotel tonight for the reunion to continue through Sunday. This is just one of the many pictures from the collection of Cyrene Williams Hall, whose mother, the late Mrs. Myrtle Garrett, center seated, who was nurse was honored at this party held in 1923 at the hospital. Among those pictured here are Dr. Wildie Graves, seated left, Dr. Ora Mason and daughter, Patricia, now Mrs. Robert O. Miller, next to Mrs. Garrett, followed by Dr. Will Mason and Dr. Rob Mason. Two Die In Truck-Train Wreck In Paducah Today

Two persons were killed and two others injured in a train-truck collision this morning near Paducah.

Kentucky State Police said the driver of a Reelfoot packing truck, Charles T. Crittenden, age 27, of Union City, was killed when the truck he was driving collided with an Illinois Central train in the Lovettsville-Florence Station Crossing of the I. C. Railroad, 9.7 miles south of Paducah.

Although the driver of the truck was scheduled to be the only occupant of the vehicle, an as-yet-identified second man was also killed in the crash. State Police theorize he may have been a hitchhiker, but have not identified the man as yet.

The accident occurred at about 7:40 a. m. today, in what is known as the Mayfield District Line of the I. C. R. R. Also injured in the crash were the engineer of the train, C. K. Craven, of Memphis, who sustained minor injuries, and the brakeman, D. M. Smith, both of Memphis. Smith was thought to have more serious injuries; both were taken to Western Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Police said the crossing was near a curve in the train tracks, with no control lights. Preliminary reports by police also indicated that this was thought to be the first run in the area by Crittenden. The train was pulling 110 cars.

Three Injured In Accident On Wednesday

Three persons were injured in a traffic accident Wednesday at 2:53 p.m. on Highway 94 East.

Details of the accident were not available from Kentucky State Police, who investigated the incident.

Hospital reports showed that Mrs. Mildred Cook, Route Three, was transferred to Lourdes Hospital in Paducah, with lacerations and several possible fractures. Charles Chilcutt, 11th Street, was transferred to Hopkins County Hospital in Madisonville with a fractured nasal bone. Terry Lee, Route Two, was treated and released for contusions, according to hospital officials.

Pay Raise For Congress Passes House By 1 Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress' vote for its cost-of-living pay raise gives the members two dates to watch: October 1975 for setting the amount, and November 1976 when the voters speak.

Concern with what the voters may think showed through the House debate Wednesday, the maneuvering to determine whether there would be a recorded vote disclosing each member's position and the final breathtaking 214-213 recorded vote which passed the bill.

In the Senate, where only a third of the members will be up for re-election next year, the measure passed Tuesday, 58 to 29.

Democratic House freshmen, especially vulnerable to opposition next year because they are newcomers, voted 51 to 21 against the bill.

Congress Moving To Soften Blow To Consumers

Officials Prepare For Abrupt End To Oil Price Controls August 31

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal officials are preparing for the abrupt end of U.S. oil price controls on Aug. 31, and Congress is moving to soften the impact on the consumer of higher petroleum prices after the House killed President Ford's plan for a gradual end to controls.

Federal Energy Administrator Frank G. Zarb said today that while he expects controls to end suddenly by the end of next month consumers should feel the impact gradually over six to nine months.

Still awaiting House action today is a Senate-passed bill extending the price controls for six months beyond the Aug. 31 expiration. Ford has said he will veto such a measure and Zarb said "there is no doubt in my mind" that Ford will do so.

Meanwhile, the Senate is ready to take up a bill to tax windfall oil profits and return some of that money to consumers. Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee said he hopes to have the bill passed by the Senate and the House this week before Congress begins its month-long recess Friday night.

Zarb said he saw enactment of a windfall profits tax as the key legislative priority now. He said such legislation is needed to prevent oil companies from reaping excessive profits once controls are removed.

Zarb said he saw no chance for a compromise with Congress after the House rejection of President Ford's proposal. Saying "we are extremely disappointed" by the House action, Zarb said: "At the President's direction, FEA is making necessary preparations for an orderly transition" from controlled oil prices on Aug. 31.

Jackson Purchase PCA To Hold Annual Meeting

The Jackson Purchase Production Credit Association will hold its 42nd annual stockholders meeting at Murray, on Tuesday, August 5, 1975, according to Cloy Hobbs the association's president. P. C. A. members from Marshall and Calloway Counties will meet in the Murray High School, located at the corner of Sycamore Street and Doran Road.

Hobbs further said that a bar-b-que supper will be served, cafeteria style, beginning at 7:00 p. m. and a business session will follow which will include the association's financial report and the election of two directors. These directors will be from Fulton County and Ballard County.

According to Murray field office manager, Keys Keel, the 1975 nominating committee has nominated Parnell Garrigan and Charles E. Roberts from Fulton County, and James A. Wilson and Paul A. Holt from Ballard County. One from each of these counties will be elected to the board of directors to serve a three year term. Also, to be elected at the meeting will be a member to serve on the 1976 nominating committee from the Murray Office. Nominees are Max Workman from Calloway County and Allen Overby from Marshall County.

Tommy Murphey, association assistant vice president, commented that a drawing for door prizes would be held at the close of the meeting. Each member will be eligible for the drawing, but they must be present to win.

He also said that a large attendance is expected, but the success of the meeting will depend upon a good attendance from the counties involved. He hopes each member would consider it their obligation to attend since the meeting was being conducted for their enjoyment and benefit.

Teen Couple Caught in the Act Say They Can't Be Kept Apart

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 16 and have been going with a guy I'll call Doug for nearly two years. (He's 17.) He's very popular at school and comes from a well-to-do family. (More so than mine.)

Well, four months ago his mother came home early and caught us going all the way. She didn't say anything, but the next day Doug told me he'd promised his mother that he'd break up with me. (She doesn't know it, but we've been going all the way for a year and a half.)

We stayed apart for two months, then we started seeing each other on the sly.

Doug's mother was driving by a hamburger shop yesterday and saw Doug and me coming out, so she phoned my mother and told her she didn't approve of Doug's seeing me. (She didn't say why.) My mom said she approved and that it was up to me. (My mom doesn't know I've gone all the way.)

Doug's mother is crazy. Doug said she had been treated for mental illness.

Doug and I love each other and hate all this sneaking around. How can we make his mother realize that she can't keep us apart?

DOUG'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: First, I think Doug's mother was very charitable in not telling your mother why she disapproved of you. Furthermore, your remarks about the woman were unkind. Having been treated for a mental illness does not make a person "crazy."

I have no idea how you can get Doug's mother to realize she can't keep you apart. She's understandably concerned about her son's future, and I can't fault her.

A little unsolicited advice from me: "Going all the way" is for people who can handle mature relationships. Obviously, you don't qualify.

DEAR ABBY: I am 10-years-old and take piano lessons, but I hate it very much. My lessons are almost over for this year, but my mom says I have to take piano lessons again next year, and I don't want to.

What should I do?

PIANO LESSON HATER

DEAR HATER: Take lessons and practice! Many adults have told me that one of the biggest regrets of their lives is having quit music lessons. But not one who has quit has said that he was glad he did.

DEAR ABBY: You hear a lot about ungrateful children. How about ungrateful parents?

Our parents are retired on modest pensions. To save them money, my husband does their plumbing and electrical repair work. He's no amateur. He makes his living that way. Sometimes he spends two or more days on a repair job for them and asks nothing in return. He even supplies the parts.

My kick is that my parents have called other plumbers and electricians who have charged them outrageous prices (one bill was $75 and the other, $160 for jobs that were so poor my husband had to straighten them out afterward.)

It seems to me that if my folks are going to pay for a job, they could at least call my husband and give him the business.

Should we tell them that from now on they should hire people to do their jobs for them? Or should we apply for guardianship of these old fools?

TIRED OF IT

DEAR TIRED: Of the two alternatives, I'd recommend the former.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Miss Meleia Jane Spann And James Earl Burton Wed At Williams Chapel

The wedding of Miss Meleia Jane Spann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Spann, and James Earl Burton, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burton, took place in a late summer ceremony at the Williams Chapel Church of Christ.
Bro. James Thomasson performed the double ring ceremony before an altar centered with a white wrought iron arch. Large baskets of yellow gladioli and white mums were on each side of the arch on stands. Close relatives and a few close friends attended the ceremony.
A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Frances Spillman and Mrs. Kathy Ernestburger, vocalists.
Bride's Dress
The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She was attired in a floor length gown of white bridal satin with yoke and long puffed sleeves of white lace and accented with a stand-up collar. Her chapel length veil was trimmed with white lace and attached to a Juliet cap of lace petals embroidered with seed pearls.
She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations, daisies, yellow dried flowers and baby's breath with white lace and satin streamers tied in love knots.
Miss June Murdock was maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of yellow polyester knit designed with short puffed sleeves with ruffles of knit circling the front bodice and the stand up collar. She carried two long stemmed yellow roses with yellow and white streamers.
Ray Murdock was best man for Mr. Burton. They both wore boutonnieres of yellow carnations.

The guest register was kept by Miss Teresa Turley. The table was covered with a white satin cloth edged with white lace centered with a vase of yellow gladioli.

Understanding Mental Health

Babies Do See, Hear

Research scientists today are learning many things about infants which prove that newborns are much more developed in their abilities to sense the world about them than was commonly believed.

How babies perceive the world is no longer the mystery to us that it used to be, as we come to understand more accurately what makes them tick and how much they have going for them. At the National Institute of Mental Health and elsewhere, researchers recently have reappraised infant capabilities that were discounted, or at least unmeasured, 15-20 years ago.

For example, at one time it was held that the newly born could not focus their eyes and therefore could not really "see" anything. This was a disappointment to millions of mothers who had been sure their children had been looking straight at them— from their first day of life— in loving recognition. We have since learned that the mothers were largely right: even newborn infants have about 20/150 vision, which is surprisingly good.

Scientists also had conjectured that the newborn could not hear well. Now we know that they do hear sounds of medium intensity.

Years ago, existing evidence indicated that babies had very little sense of taste. Only recently, research has shown that they are able to distinguish milk, sugar, water, some fruit juices, and other foods. They are sensitive to odors, too.

The infant's sensory system is ready to function almost from birth. However, the newborn's motor system lacks development. Therefore, babies cannot react to all they see or hear.

Many questions remain to be answered, but we also now have solid knowledge that the infant is interested in people soon after birth. Inanimate objects appeal much less. During the first few months of life, attention span increases steadily, and by about 5-months old, distinctive facial features such as the mother's eyes are noticed more and more.

This latter ability suggests the importance of eye contact between mothers and infants, according to scientists at NIMH, a part of HEW's Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration. There are indications that direct contact with the mother's eyes influences whether or not the infant is outgoing in later relationships with other people.

Bible Thought

For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them... Luke 9:56.

It is important to realize the value of what we keep. We are renewed because we are kept always by God!

BLASSINGAME

Let's Stay Well

Womb Sounds Quiet Babies

By F.J.L. Blassingame, M.D.

Bawling babies may be quieted by sounds that are similar to those which unborn infants are exposed to in the mother's womb.

A Sunday Times of London story, summarized in a recent issue of the Reader's Digest, told of research work at Tokyo's Nippon Medical School by Professor Hajime Murooka. He was searching for a method by which the newborn and premature babies could be kept still so that they could be examined with delicate instruments. Hospitals have been using incubators to simulate conditions inside a mother's uterus.

It occurred to Professor Murooka to use the recording of sounds which the fetus is exposed to in its mother.

He secured the permission of a woman needing artificial labor to insert a small microphone (8 mm.) inside her uterus at the end of a thin rubber tube. In this manner, he was able to pick up the "body beat" from the mother as it occurred near the unborn infant's head.

The sounds which Professor Murooka recorded were amplified and found to have a dramatic effect on infants in the maternity ward. The procedure proved promptly effective (average time before a baby stops crying was 34 seconds) in quieting almost all of the 500 babies tested. Tests were made on normal infants under two weeks of age, with dry diapers and before feeding.

A long-playing record of thud-thud sounds from inside a mother's womb has proved to be popular in Japan. The record is sold under the title of "Lullaby Inside Mum."

It is too early to predict whether such sound effects will prove generally useful in quieting crying, normal babies.

Q: Mrs. N.S. says that her mother had chronic bladder trouble and that her father developed an enlarged prostate gland. She wonders if these facts make it more likely that she will have any inherited weakness in her urinary tract?

A: The bladder trouble in your mother and the enlarged prostate in your father are unrelated conditions, not considered to be transmitted by inheritance to the next generation. You have no need for worry and should have your urine examined during a physical checkup. Special studies can be made if any signs of urinary tract disease are found.

Q: Mr. I.S. asks whether traffic fatalities are again on the rise.

A: According to figures available for the first two months of 1975, the National Safety Council reports a 6 per cent rise in fatalities over the same months in 1974. Americans appear to be returning to their former driving habits.

Garrott's Two Ladies, Two Chip-Ins, Two Pars On The Same Hole

By M. C. Garrott

It wouldn't happen again in years—two lady golfers playing together and chipping in from off the green for pars on the same hole and one after the other.

It happened the other day at the Oaks Country Club when Doris Rose and Marge Foster were playing the front nine. They were both just off the green on the uphill, dog-leg 5th hole when Doris sank her approach shot for a 4 and a par on the hole. Once she had settled down from all her jumping up and down and squealing with joy, Marge, not to be outdone, promptly stroked her shot up onto the green and into the cup, too, also for a par 4 on the hole.

Like I said, it wouldn't happen again in years.

While on the subject of golf, our circuit court judge, James Lassiter, narrowly missed getting seriously injured by a stray tee shot the other day.

The judge was playing with Billy Thurmond, Jiggs Lassiter and someone else and was getting ready to chip his approach shot up onto the 7th green when a ball came sailing over the pine trees from the northwest and the No. 6 tee to smack him solidly on the heel of his left hand. It narrowly missed the right side of his face.

It had been hit by James Rudy Albritten, with whom I was playing at the time, along with Sam Spiceland and Jim Duiguid. We saw the ball heading right toward the 7th green and could see a golf cart or two through the trees. We yelled "Fore!" loudly and several times, but by the time they saw it coming over the trees it was too late to keep it from striking the judge.

Boody Russell was riding along with us in a cart and immediately rushed James Rudy over to see how badly the judge was hurt. Fortunately, he was able to go on and play after rubbing his numbed hand for a few minutes.

That's an awful feeling, knowing you have hit someone with a golf ball, especially a wood shot. I know. I once hit an Indiana state policeman right in the seat of his pants with a line-drive 3-wood shot from about 75 feet away.

We were living in St. Louis at the time, and I had come down to West Kentucky to play in the Irvin Cobb Tournament at Paducah. It wasn't as big and as prestigious an affair then as it is today.

Golfers of my caliber could get in it. We were in the seventh hole, which is a long, 5-par hole over a couple of rolling hills. My tee shot had ended up about six inches in the rough, but the lie was good. I decided to hit out with the 3-wood.

The state policeman was in our threesome, and his wife was walking along with us, mainly to get some sun. It couldn't have been the golf. As I got ready to hit my ball, I noticed he had walked on ahead on up the hill and almost directly in my line of flight.

As politely as I know how when playing with strangers, I yelled the warning word, "Fore!" and paused to see if he had heard. Looking back over his shoulder, he called, "Go ahead and hit, I'm watching you."

It just naturally makes you a little nervous to have someone in front of you and that close on a golf shot. I should have waited and insisted that he get out of the way, but I didn't.

I just drew back and hit it as hard as I could, as I had a long way to go to the green. That ball never got more than about three feet off the ground and like a bullet lined right toward that state policeman.

He was looking back over his shoulder and saw it coming, but it was coming too fast. He couldn't get out of the way. He just turned his back on it and jumped just as the ball smacked right into the seat of his pants just like a pitcher's fast ball smacks into a catcher's mitt. It hung there for a second and then dropped straight down—still in the rough.

I had the worse felling in the pit of my stomach as I ran up to him. He, in the meantime, was hopping around on both feet like a kangaroo, his face all drawn up in pain and groaning, "Uh! Uh! Uh! Uh!" His little wife was running alongside, tugging at his arm and inquiring frantically, "Are you hurt, honey? Are you hurt?"

He soon settled down and quit his hopping around. Turned out he just had a bruised fanny and after a few minutes of groaning and grimacing was able to continue the round. He did, I noticed, eat his lunch standing up.

I was lucky he wasn't badly hurt, and I learned a lesson that day.

As soon as I got back to St. Louis, I bought my first homeowner's insurance policy. One of the first questions I asked the agent was:

"Does it cover me if I hit someone on the golf course?" He said it did.

Counselors To Attend Conference At University

About 40 rehabilitation counselors from across Kentucky are expected to attend a regional training conference on the rehabilitation of the deaf at Murray State University Aug. 4-8.

Hosted by Murray State, the workshop is supported by the University of Tennessee as part of its rehabilitation continuing education program, which is funded partly by a federal grant. Dr. Roy Tunick, coordinator of rehabilitation training programs at Murray State and conference coordinator, said the purpose of the conference is "to have rehabilitation counselors become more aware of the problems involved in deafness as well as to supply them with some basic skills for communicating and working with the deaf."

A wide range of expert resource people will be available to cover topics such as psychological, physiological, and vocational aspects of deafness, medical considerations, and communication techniques such as finger-spelling.

Films and slides supplied by an industrial firm concerning the prevention of deafness and the physiology of the ear and how deafness occurs will be shown during the sessions.

A highlight of the conference will be a panel on Thursday, Aug. 7, of people who have been associated with the deaf in a variety of ways. They will discuss the problems of deafness and what can be done to overcome them, as well as how to foster a better general understanding of people with hearing difficulties.

Tunick added that participants have been assigned pre-workshop activities such as memorizing finger-spelling cards, conducting a community survey, readings, watching a television program without sound, and other exercises to develop empathy with people who have hearing problems.

He said the significance of the conference is borne out by the report on a recent nationwide study done at New York University which shows that the deaf population is almost double what had been previously estimated.

Figures from that study indicate that 13.6 million people in the country have some hearing impairment and 1.7 million are deaf, with about 410,000 classified as pre-vocational deaf, meaning they had lost the ability to hear and understand speech before the age of 19.

Mrs. Thurman To Address Conference

Lanette Thurman, director of the Personal Enrichment Center at Murray State

Lanette Thurman

University, will address two sessions of the Kentucky Vocational Education Conference at Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green Aug. 7.

Her topic for the presentation to about 200 high school and college vocational education teachers will be "Integrating Personal Development into the Business and Office Curriculum."

Mrs. Thurman, who is also a part-time instructor of business education and office administration, will address a morning session and an afternoon session on the third day of the conference Aug. 5-8.

She will offer suggestions to teachers for making personal development an integral part of the education of the whole person. Her presentation includes stressing the positive approach to the assessment of strengths, setting of realistic goals, examining values and planning for personal and professional success.

the motivation provided must come from teachers who are themselves committed to the belief that education is for the whole person — whether teacher, student or business person," she explains.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Some things which seemed at a standstill can now be picked up, brightened, advanced. Avoid extremes in thought and action, however.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Mixed planetary influences. Be careful not to speak out of turn, and don't press too forcibly for what you want when a few well-chosen words will do the trick.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

You may encounter what seems to be undue opposition. Take whatever steps are necessary to overcome it, but do not mistake honest discussion for hostility.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Anchor to a well-organized program. Do not expose yourself to needless precarious action, or make foolish compromises, to be later regretted. Head up!

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

You can make your personality felt in many areas now, but be sufficiently prepared in situations through which you hope to profit. Haste would be unwise.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Be prepared today for interruptions, necessary delays. Some order and specifics will be disrupted, perhaps not showing effects till later. Clear the atmosphere of tension.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

You may not size up occupational situations as accurately as usual. Better double-check! On the personal side, romance and travel favored.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Some ungovernable moments indicated, but you can handle with your native intelligence and astuteness. Just be sure to keep emotions under control.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

A good day for attaining one of your cherished goals. Someone behind the scenes is working in your interests.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

A fine day for teamwork. Many useful ideas will result from an exchange of views with associates. Some good news indicated in the p.m.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

A down-to-earth attitude needed. Don't let yourself be drawn into a whirlwind of rumor and speculation—now rife in many quarters.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Don't let surface glitter beguile you now. Search for facts before accepting any proposition—no matter how rosy it sounds.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a lively mind, a dynamic personality, lofty ambitions and great dignity. You are capable of leadership in many fields, but must curb certain traits before you are able to take on such responsibilities, which require self-mastery and discipline. Don't let domineering, excessive pride or impatience cause you to be sharp with others. Leoties make outstanding executives once they have conquered these faults. Otherwise, their value is lessened because they lower the morale of associates and employees. You are ardent, romantically inclined, love to travel and enjoy the luxuries of life—which you are willing to work for. Tribe Nips Orioles As Ellis Blasts Homerun

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer

Frank Robinson asked what seemed to be an ironic question: "What's everyone so up-tight about John Ellis for?"

The feeling had been that Frank Robinson was uptight about John Ellis, or vice-versa. Mere weeks ago the Cleveland Indians manager had benched the big catcher and said that Ellis might never again wear the Cleveland colors.

At least, that's the way it appeared; but Robinson criticized gathered newsmen for listening with one ear Wednesday night after Ellis' two-run eighth-inning home run had beaten the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1.

"When a story is carried somewhere else, you guys never get the full quote. The full quote was: 'He'll never be my regular catcher and he'll never play for me again if he doesn't come and tell me he's going to play the game the way I want it played—for the good of the team.'"

"No player is bigger than the team. It's as simple as that," said Robinson.

Now it seems Ellis agrees with that philosophy, although when asked if the hatchet had been buried with the manager, he said "I'd rather not talk about it. I'd rather just stay away from it."

Elsewhere in the American League, California rallied to trim Chicago 5-4; New York edged Detroit 2-1; Oakland blanked Texas 1-0; Milwaukee downed Boston 6-2 and Kansas City beat Minnesota 6-4.

Angels 5, White Sox 4
John Doherty's bases-loaded ninth-inning single capped the three-run rally that lifted California past Chicago and gave Nolan Ryan his second consecutive victory after eight straight losses.

Yankees 2, Tigers 1
Rudy May held Detroit to three hits and Roy White's tie-breaking double in the sixth inning drove in the winning run for New York.

A's 1, Rangers 0
Bert Campaneris hit his fourth home run of the season—the 28th surrendered by Ferguson Jenkins—and three Oakland pitchers combined for a five-hitter to carry Oakland past Texas.

Brewers 6, Red Sox 2
Sixto Lezcano's three-run homer in the eighth inning was the telling blow in Milwaukee's triumph over Boston.

Darcy Snaps Long Red String, Goes Distance

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer

The game was not really in doubt but there was a major league record at stake when Pat Darcy took the mound in the ninth inning for Cincinnati.

"I could hear the crowd pulling for me in the ninth," said the 25-year-old right-hander. "I was just hoping Sparky would leave me in. I really wanted it."

He got it, just barely, beating San Francisco 6-1 Wednesday night to become the first Cincinnati pitcher to finish what he started since June 11. The Reds' pitching staff had gone through a record 45 straight games without a complete one. It was getting embarrassing.

"It was becoming a monster," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson. "I'm glad it's over with."

Darcy, 7-5, finished with an eight-hitter and his first complete game in the majors. Tony Perez drove in three runs with a triple and single and Johnny Bench had three hits and two RBIs. John Falcone, 7-7, was the loser.

Picky, Picky, Picky: Connors Must Have It All His Own Way

By KAROL STONGER
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Will Jimmy Connors ever play for the U.S. Davis Cup team?

Not so long as Dennis Ralston was captain, he wouldn't. Connors' manager says he won't play for Tony Trabert, either.

Trabert, a Davis Cup player and international singles champion in the 1950s and now a teaching professional in California, was named captain of the team Wednesday by the U.S. Tennis Association.

The appointment, announced at a news conference in New York, was an effort to calm the turbulent tennis waters and put the United States back into Davis Cup contention after humiliating early-round defeats the past two years.

One of the keys was to get Connors to play.

"The USTA came to us four or five months ago saying they wanted to talk, to try to bring all the sides together," said Riordan from his office in Salisbury, Md.

Riordan said Stan Malless, president of the USTA, went over a list of 20 possible candidates for the job. Perhaps one would please Jimmy.

"The list was endless," said Riordan. "The only one that Jimmy couldn't agree with was Tony Trabert. It's obvious to me they don't want Connors."

Riordan said Connors' objections to Trabert were personal and philosophical. He said Trabert, a teaching professional and sometimes television commentator, made disparaging remarks about Connors during a telecast of the Australian Open championships, verbally abused Connors' mother and then, in Las Vegas during Connors' challenge match with John Newcombe, took Riordan aside.

"He went into a long harangue about how Connors was disgraceful on the court," Riordan said. "He said if he had his way he'd suspend him. He went into the glory days of tennis in the 1940s and 1950s and I told him that things had changed."

Despite Riordan's dire predictions, Trabert plans to meet with Connors and his manager in an effort to iron things out. "I'd like to talk to Jimmy personally and tell him what I have in mind, clear the air," said Trabert. "I think I can if we can sit down."

GOLF

CLEMMONS, N.C. — Marianne Stangeland downed Pat O'Brien on the fourth extra hole to survive the second round of the Women's Western Golf Association amateur tournament.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Gary Pinns, a 17-year-old Lombard, Ill., golfer fired a three-under-par 68 to finish the second day of qualifying for the U.S. Junior Amateur Championship as the only player under par.

First Dinner Meeting Big M Club Holds Its

The Big M Club met at the Triangle Inn Wednesday night. President Dick Stout discussed several new items of importance and Murray State football coach Bill Furgerson presented a brief outlook at the 1975 Racers and opened the floor for a question and answer series.

Plans were announced for the annual kickoff barbecue to be held August 20. Also, regular meetings of the Big M Club will be held on Thursdays at 6:30 p. m.

There are still a few good box seats left for the season and the reserved seat section in Stewart Stadium has been expanded. Anyone interested in purchasing a box seat or a reserved seat or anyone wanting to join the Big M Club should contact MSU athletic director Cal Luther.

Furgerson spoke briefly on the fine crop of incoming freshmen at Murray this fall. Among those freshman recruits are five from Kentucky who will be playing in the annual East-West All-Star football game Saturday in Lexington.

They are Joe Riley of Owensboro, Randy Jones of Mayfield, Doug Shelton of Murray High, Keith Buckingham of Hopkinsville and Roy Hackley of Louisville Thomas Jefferson.

Also, on the West squad is Steve Porter of Murray High. Porter will be playing for the University of Tennessee this fall. Coaching the West will be Murray High's John Hina.

Cut Roster

MIAMI (AP) — The Miami Dolphins cut their training camp roster to 67 players Wednesday by releasing eight-year National Football League veteran Tom Funchess.

Funchess, a 6-foot-5, 270 pound offensive tackle, was picked up by the Dolphins as a free agent last year after injuries depleted the offensive line of the club. He started three games before being slowed by an injury.

The 31-year-old Jackson State product was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round in 1968. He was traded to Houston in 1971 and was named the Oilers' top offensive lineman in 1972.

TENNIS

NEW YORK — Tony Trabert was named captain of the United States Davis Cup tennis team.

LOUISVILLE — Wimbledon champ Arthur Ashe posted an easy second-round victory over Gerald Battrick, 6-2, 6-2 in the $100,000 Louisville Pro Tennis Classic.

Struggling Miller Hasn't Won Tourney Since Last February

By BOB GREEN

AP Golf Writer HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — "It was," said Johnny Miller with a pleased but rather wistful quality to his voice, "a very good year."

Miller was referring to his banner season of 1974 in which he won eight American titles and a record $353,021.

"I'm sure, at my age, I shouldn't be looking back," the slender, blond 27-year-old said, then smiled. "But it was, as Frank Sinatra said, a very good year. I have it. It's behind me. No one can ever take it away from me."

Miller, who teed off today as the defending champion in the $250,000 Westchester Classic, started this season in the same way that he dominated the game last year. He won three of his first four starts, setting records in a couple of them and shooting rounds of 61 in the first two.

But he hasn't won since then, since the first week in February. He's come close—second by a shot in the Masters, one shot out of a playoff in the British Open, second in the Philadelphia Classic. But he hasn't won.

He hasn't beaten Jack Nicklaus all year. He's lost his lead in the money-winning race. The spotlight has shifted from him to Nicklaus to Tom Watson to Hale Irwin to Tom Weiskopf.

"In a way," Miller said before his start on the 6,614-yard, par-72 Westchester Country Club course in suburban New York, "it was a lot like this last year. I didn't play that much and I didn't play all that well during the summer."

"The only difference is that last year every time I got in position to win, I won. This time I haven't done it. I've let some get away."

Now, with a chance to regain his money-winning lead, he's looking for a turn-around in his season.

"About this time last year I started playing really well again," he said. "Maybe it'll happen again this year."

With $50,000 going to the winner of this event and $28,500 to the runner-up—prizes that are exceeded by only one tournament on the schedule—Miller has an opportunity to regain the money-winning lead from Nicklaus, who is skipping this tournament for the first time in history.

Nicklaus leads the money race with $203,599. Miller, with $183,270, could take over the top spot by finishing either first or second. Irwin and Weiskopf, with $180,227 and $169,565 respectively, also could move into the No. 1 position with high finishes here.

Although Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer all are among the missing, the 153-man field includes 54 of the top 60 money-winners of the year.

Among the other standouts are South African Gary Player, U.S. and British Open champions Lou Graham and Tom Watson, $1 million winners Gene Littler and Bruce Crampton and John Mahaffey, a four-time runner-up this season.

Murray Moose Lodge Is City Softball Champion

Murray Moose Lodge won the Men's Softball Tournament Tuesday night at the Murray City Park by slipping past Big J of Benton 2-1.

Larry Jones was the winning pitcher for the Moose Lodge.

Big J scored a run in the top of the third to take a 1-0 lead but Murray Moose tied it in the bottom of the third when Dan Jones scored on a groundout. The contest remained tied until the bottom of the fifth when Gary Wallis singled to drive in Nick Krafchik with the tie-breaking run.

A team trophy and individual trophies were presented to Murray Moose. Also in the tourney, Dennison-Hunt took third place by defeating Perry Construction of Benton. Murray Moose now advances to the District Tournament which will be played in Calvert City this weekend.

Commissioner

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Jack Riley, 56, former president of the American Hockey League, has been named commissioner of the Southern Hockey League.

Riley left the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League on June 30 after 7½ years as their general manager.

Al Manch, president of the Charlotte, N.C. team, was elected chairman of the board of governors.

your own carpets

(At do-it-yourself prices)

RENT new portable RINSE-N-VAC that steam cleans, rinses and vacuums carpets professionally clean.

"Steam" is a generic term commonly used to describe the hot water extraction process of carpet cleaning. Live steam (water vapor) under pressure at 212°F is used in the RINSE-N-VAC Cleaning System because of its ability to penetrate deep into the carpet fibers and dissolve dirt and grime.

19 Killed In Taiwan Plane Crash Today

TAIPEI, Taiwan (AP) — A domestic airliner with 74 persons aboard crashed today as it was trying to land here during a rainstorm. Officials said at least 19 persons were killed and 20 others injured.

The Viscount jet of Far Eastern Air Transport went down inside the Taipei airport on the edge of the city and shattered into three sections, airport officials said.

An official of the Civil Aeronautics Administration said the dead included three of the seven foreigners aboard.

The victims were not immediately identified.

The injured were taken to Air Force Hospital.

The pilot, Tsiang Cho-chin, who was among those killed, was trying to bring the plane down when it crashed a few minutes before its scheduled 4 p.m. arrival from the eastern Taiwan city of Hualien.

Authorities sealed off the airport and barred reporters.
